DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action correspondence is a response to Request of continuation examination filed on 07/10/2008. After reconsideration of Request of continuation examination, further search and through examination of the present application, claims 1,3-22 are found to be in condition for allowance over prior arts of record. Claim 2 is canceled.

Reasons for allowance

2. In independent Claims 1,13,14 are patentable over the closest references of Milliken(US Patent No 6,978,223 B2) in view of Ebata et al (US Pub No 20020042837) and in further view of Zuk(US Pub No 20040030927 A1) because they do not anticipate nor fairly and reasonably teach a method/system of track-back a single malicious data packet in a connection-oriented communication network including a network node comprising a plurality of router interfaces, the method comprising the steps of: a)for a given time window of a predetermined length computing a flow identifier that uniquely identifies given flow seen by a respective router interface at said network node; b)inserting said flow identifier a data structure storing flow identifiers computed at said respective router interface during said time window ;c)storing said data structure in a searchable repository at said network node; d)repeating steps a) to c) for a plurality of successive time windows ,wherein each router interface stores a separate date structure for each time; e)determining an arrival time window including a time of arrival of said single malicious packet at said network node, and computing a flow identifier for said single malicious packet; and f) identifying said router interface for said single malicious packet by searching for the flow identifier of said single malicious packet in all data structures stored at said network node that contain data for said arrival time window.

Conclusion

3. Claims 1,3-22 are patentable.
4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays should be clearly labeled "Comments on statement of Reasons for allowance."
